

Theorem 1. The usual topology on \mathbf{R}^n is the only Hausdorff topology that makes it a topological vector space.

Theorem 2. The only topological vector space over \mathbf{R} with the discrete topology is the zero space